

Refuse Dump Under Fire

A parade of witnesses appeared in Supreme Court here yesterday and testified in a proceeding where the Town of New Hartford was seeking to prevent the dumping of refuse on property on Valley View Rd.

The town had joined John Ray in seeking a permanent injunction against continued operation of a dump by Homer Scully on land owned by Mrs. Elizabeth Scully.

Ray owns property adjacent to the Scully property on Valley View Rd.

The proceeding, before Justice E. Howard Ringrose, will continue at 10 this morning.

Several residents from the South Utica and Parkway East area testified for the plaintiffs yesterday. Howard C. Jones, State district sanitary engineer, also testified about smoke emanating from the dump. Attorneys for the plaintiff also submitted as exhibits photographs of the dump and surrounding area.

Attorney Lawrence J. Goldbas, representing the Scullys, was expected to present his case today.

Attorney Anthony J. Fernicola represented Ray, and attorney Vincent E. Vetter, represented the town. Robert E. Morris is town attorney.
